PSYCHOLOGICAL STRATEGY BOARD
 WASHINGTON

March 20, 1952

P E R S O N A L

NOTE TO MR. DULLES:

You may remember that in connection with the Kersten amendment, it was agreed that if some suggested statutory language could be agreed upon, it might be informally presented to the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

I understand that [] from CIA, Hoopes from Defense, and Cox from our Staff are meeting this afternoon to see if appropriate language can be drafted. If they agree, presumably, they will get MSA views. Finally, [] may discuss the matter with you in order to get your judgment, both on the language and on tactics.

[] and I have an appointment with Mansfield on Monday afternoon to discuss informally certain other matters. If, in your judgment, we can be any help in connection with the above problem, we will be glad to do anything that you suggest. I realize that Richards, as Chairman, of the Committee, is a little touchy, and I further recognize that it might be more appropriate, if possible, for you or someone from MSA to make the suggestion. Consequently, please consider this merely an offer to do with as you will.
